

WAREHOUSE POLICY

1. All materials required for manufacturing process must be received 24 hours in advance to schedule production.
2. The client shall be informed of the Dispatch date, upon which the items are held on premises for 5 working days after completion of order. Items need to be picked up before indicated deadline date.
3. Unless exempted, charges will apply for delayed pick up, calculated at (1% of total material costs x No of days beyond dispatch date)
4. Navasthala shall not be liable for any damages to material and items beyond the dispatch date.
5. If there is a delay in advance payment, warehouse charges for raw material placed at the factory premises will be applicable for warehouse charges at 1% of total material costs x No of days beyond production delay date.